

100 down and more to come

Sonia and Chayan

They had scored a 100 and the century surely called for celebration. We aren't talking of cricket but this time we are hinting at the mega serial, Trishul, which is aired on a national channel and its successful completion of 100 episodes.

Jovial that their ripe fruits of labour, the cast and crew members of the same came together at a lounge bar on Thursday evening. The party set sail from six in the evening. The trickling in of guests caught a fast pace as the evening wore on and so did the party spirit. Amidst delectable platterfuls and dance masti the revellers said three cheers to a successful on screen journey in no mean terms.
